

Song, Dance, Art & Earth

Cantores Choir (OUSA) with orchestra, dancers and the artworks of Olav Nielsen combine in the Dunedin Public Art Gallery

Sunday, 23 May, 7pm

Dunedin Public Art Gallery, The Octagon

Music includes:

Handel: Messiah Part III Charpentier: Te Deum (excerpts)

Mozart: Agnus Dei (Coronation Mass) and Ave Verum

Michael Jackson Tribute: Earth Song and Beat it to new words + more

Art from renowned Dunedin artist Olav Nielsen will be projected during music and the music of Mozart, Handel and Charpentier will feature dance performance.

New lyrics will be sung to Michael Jackson's "Beat It", penned by Robert Burns Fellow, Michele Powles. The text debates the topical issue of mining conservation land: "Leave it / Mine it"

With Guest Soloist Emma Fraser

Director: Greg Peyroux

Orchestra Leader: Charlotte Francis

The orchestra is assembled from players from the Southern Sinfonia and Dunedin Youth Orchestra
Dancers include local performers and university performance art students.

Adult:

$10.00 + donation

Children

Free (School age and younger)

Proceeds will go to a charity for young musicians, the Rupert Stewart Memorial Scholarship

Tickets from: The Dolls House-Dance Shop, 335 George St, Dunedin 03-477 7076